About Us

Winkworth Farm is a family owned and operated eco-friendly wedding venue, set at the edge of the Cotswolds, near the charming market town of Malmesbury.

The venue offers exclusive use for every wedding, so you can enjoy a private celebration with your guests. The beautifully renovated 17th-century Cotswold stone barn is nestled within the tranquil setting of 220 acres of organic pasture. The well-kept lawns, herbaceous borders and sunken garden sit within the beautiful organic meadows, providing stunning scenery and magical backdrops for your important wedding photographs.

"Thank you all so much for your incredible hard work to ensure Lily & Adam had such a wonderful wedding day. She told us it was her dream wedding! You all helped to make it such a special occasion for us."

Ali & Paul, May 2018
